Data Protection Declaration

neuron.ai - Verein für Studenten mit Interesse an Künstlicher Intelligenz (hereinafter referred to as “neuron.ai” or “student initiative”)

Declaration of Consent

----- Data Protection in the Student Initiative -----

I, _____, sincerely agree that the following personal data may be processed for the stated purposes by the people in charge of the student initiative:

Data	Purpose	Storage Period
Academic Title Full name Email address Phone number University Current study program Current semester Discord username Membership number Start of membership Assigned department Curriculum vitae Photo	Administration of members Internal communication	For the period for which the purpose is fulfilled.

The personal data is treated with the greatest care. A transmission of the data only takes place as far as this is necessary

- I. for billing purposes;
- II. to maintain the digital services;
- III. for the fulfillment of legal obligations;
- IV. for central membership administration to higher-level association organizations;
- V. for cooperation with partners of the student initiative;
- VI. in the case of official activities, the contact data and photo on the website.

I agree that photos and videos taken in connection with my activities within the student initiative may be processed. I have been informed that photos and videos in digital and analog form may also be used for public purposes. Until I revoke this declaration of consent, I agree that the pictures and videos may be used for the benefit of the student initiative.

I have been informed about the processing of all the above mentioned data and had the opportunity to confer related questions. I agree with the processing of the data, provided that the above stated information corresponds to the actual use. The storage of the data is only valid as long as the stated purpose is fulfilled.

----- Data Protection Official -----

The role of the (deputy) data protection official of the student initiative, responsible for compliance with the correct processing of personal data, is bound to the current (deputy) secretary of the student initiative.

----- Right of Withdrawal -----

This declaration of consent may be revoked in whole or in part at any time in written form, by post or e-mail or orally to the Data Protection Official or their representative.

Upon receipt of the revocation, the revoking party shall receive information on receipt of the revocation. The Data Protection Official shall then immediately, but no later than one month after receipt of the revocation, delete the data affected by the revocation. This period may be extended by a further two months on duly substantiated grounds. The data itself may no longer be processed from receipt of the revocation. All processing of data, insofar as they comply with the above information tables, shall remain legally valid and shall not be affected by the revocation retroactively.

It is pointed out by the student initiative that with the assertion of the right of withdrawal, the legal requirements are no longer met and therefore, a continuing membership can no longer be pursued.

----- Concluding Information -----

The provision of the data, mentioned in this declaration, is partly neither required by law nor juridically. The information described in accordance with Art. 6 (1) of the currently valid version of the GDPR constitutes the legal basis for the consent. In order to become a member of this student initiative, a consent is required, as otherwise a legally compliant management of the members is not given.

The following rights of the currently valid version of the GDPR are available to the data subject as information. The data subject is advised to read these rights in detail.

Art. 15 GDPR: Right of access by the data subject
Art. 16 GDPR: Right to rectification
Art. 17 GDPR: Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten')
Art. 18 GDPR: Right to restriction of processing
